This Week

We had a zany week finishing the alphabet as we learned the last three letters; "X", "Y", and "Z". Throughout the week we read the sound box story for each of the letters and sorted picture cards that started with each letter. During circle time we listened to the poem for each of the letters, watched the Sesame Street Podcasts, and sang along with the StoryBots! This week we also learned about the number 18.

This week we began learning about fairytales. We learned that fairytales are make believe stories that teach us lessons. Throughout the week we talked about how characters are who the story is about and the setting is where the story happens. This week we focused on stories that had a wolf character; The Three Little Pigs and Little Red Riding Hood. We also learned that stories can be told in different versions (ways) but will have the same lessons and some similar characters. During our craft time we had fun creating three little pigs, a big bad wolf, a setting with a straw house, stick house, and brick house, and a Big Bad Wolf puppet dressed as a grandma. During center time, the kiddos had fun acting out each of the stories with props and costumes!

On Wednesday, Miss Kristin came in with her gigantic bunny, Valentino to meet the kiddos. We had fun feeding Valentino carrots, apples, lettuce and grass. We even had the chance to pet him! On Thursday, Miss Bonnie came in for Art Class to finish up an out of this world UFO art project.
