What We're Learning

News From the Nest

This week at school we continued to talk about the winter weather. We also began talking about animals in the wintertime. We discussed how some animals fly south for the winter, some stay here and enjoy the snow, and some go to sleep (hibernate)!

Some of our fine motor crafts this week included, writing letters to Santa, making penguins, making snowmen and snow animals out of playdoh.

Our letter of the week was "E". We read a story about a silly elephant who starred in an enormous talent show! As a craft we made Elmo out of the letter.

On Monday, Miss Katie came in to sing lots of holiday songs, including "The Reindeer Hokey Pokey". She also taught us a song about Hannukah.

Mado's mom came in on Monday afternoon to read us a story about Curious George and the holiday Ramadan.

On Thursday we had a lot of fun with Miss Bonnie during art class.

To end the week, on Friday, we got to visit Santa Claus at Kelly's Country store! The kiddos loved sitting with Santa and telling him what they wanted for Christmas. We also got to pick out candy to bring home with us! It was so much fun!

Next week we will be talking all about Christmas. There will be no new letter of the week, so students may bring in any item they would like for show & tell.

Reminders

As it gets colder, please remember to label ALL coats, hats, gloves, and boots as you are sending them in. Several students have items that look very similar to each other, so to avoid all confusion, it is easiest if everything is labeled.
