What We're Learning

News From the Nest

This week at school we continued talking about Thanksgiving. Each day, we discussed the kinds of foods we eat, the symbols we see during this time of year, and the people we spend it with. It was a class consensus that pizza is what SHOULD be served on Thanksgiving instead of turkey. I have to say, I agree with the kiddos!

On Wednesday, Miss Fran came in and talked to us about sharing with our friends and family, not only on Thanksgiving, but all year long.

Some of the stories we read this week, included: 10 Fat Turkeys, There Was an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Pie, If You're Thankful and You Know It, and C is for Copycats.

During our fine motor craft time we made silly turkeys that we are displaying in our classroom, pieces of pumpkin pie, cats out of the letter "C", and a decorative Thanksgiving wreath.

Next week we will talk more about Thanksgiving and make a special something that can be used during your Thanksgiving dinners!

We will not have a new letter of the week for show & tell. Students may bring in whatever item they like.

Reminders

As it gets colder, please remember to label ALL coats, hats, gloves, and boots as you are sending them in. Several students have items that look very similar to each other, so to avoid all confusion, it is easiest if everything is labeled.
